PRACTICE DISCLAIMER & TERMS OF SERVICE

1. PROFESSIONAL SCOPE AND INTEGRITY (HPCSA RULE 21)

In accordance with Ethical Rule 21 of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA), all clinical and professional acts performed at this practice are conducted by registered practitioners who are:

- Adequately educated, trained, and sufficiently experienced in their respective fields.
- Operating under proper conditions and in appropriate clinical surroundings as prescribed by the Professional Board for Optometry and Dispensing Opticians.

This practice adheres strictly to the HPCSA Ethical Rules of Conduct, ensuring that all diagnostic and therapeutic acts are performed within the practitioner's registered category.

2. WORKPLACE INJURY (COIDA) & FINANCIAL FACILITATION

- Non-Facilitation Clause: The optometrist and this practice do not act as a facilitator, intermediary, or administrator between the patient and any financial institution, insurance provider, or the Compensation Fund regarding workplace injury (COIDA) claims.
- Appointment Responsibility: This practice is not responsible for arranging, scheduling, or managing appointments related to workplace injury assessments or follow-up consultations with third-party medical or financial bodies.
- Administrative Obligation: It remains the sole responsibility of the patient (or their employer) to manage all administrative and financial processes related to such claims.

3. SOCIAL MEDIA AND ONLINE ENGAGEMENT

- Educational Purpose Only: Content shared on our social media platforms is for general informational purposes and does not constitute a professional diagnosis or a doctor-patient relationship.
- Prohibition of Online Diagnosis: In line with HPCSA Ethical Guidelines on Social Media, clinical advice will not be provided via social media comments or private messaging.
- Privacy Warning: Patients are discouraged from posting sensitive health information publicly. The practice is not liable for privacy breaches resulting from information shared by patients on public forums.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PRIVACY (POPIA)

- Statutory Protection: Your personal and medical information is protected under the National Health Act No. 61 of 2003 and the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA).
- Disclosure: Information will only be disclosed with your express written consent, by court order, or where it is in the overriding public interest.

5. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE & FEES

- Informed Consent: Patients will be informed of all costs associated with treatment or medical devices prior to services being rendered.
- Conflict of Interest: In compliance with HPCSA rules regarding exploitation, this practice does not accept or pay commissions for patient referrals. Any financial interests in specific medical brands or referred facilities will be disclosed conspicuously.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The practice shall not be held liable for any loss or damage arising from:

- The misuse of prescribed medical devices or failure to follow post-examination clinical advice.
- Administrative delays or disputes involving third-party financial institutions or medical aids.
